

Draw a picture of a Victorian street in London, annotating it with what typical scenes you might see such as open sewers, traders and horses and carts. Your annotations should be detailed and should utilise your historical knowledge and knowledge from our class reader books.

